Blowing Rock High School

Blowing Rock, North Carolina

Dedication

Offspring of an idle hour
Whence has come thy lasting power?
The stately ship is seen no more,
The fragile skiff attains the shore;
And while the great and wise decay,
And all their trophies pass away,
Some sudden thought, some careless rhyme,
Still floats above the wrecks of time.

As the last ship leaves the harbor for its final voyage into the sea of life, we the Annual Staff of Blowing Rock High School look back to the many ships that have dropped their anchors in our port, repaired their fragile hulls, and sailed off strong and secure into the troubled waters of our time.

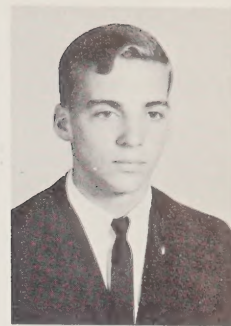

As we, the last class of Blowing Rock High School, prepare for our voyage into the seas, we look forward to our challenges in the stormy sea of life. We shall use the Bible as our sea charts and God as our Navigator.

We, the Annual Staff of Blowing Rock High School, dedicate this final edition of "The Breezes" to all of the graduating classes of Blowing Rock High School.

In Memoriam

Sherrie
Helen Hollars

And think, this heart, all evil shed away,
A pulse in the eternal mind, no less
Gives somewhere back the thought by her given;
Her sights and sounds; dreams happy as her day;
And laughter, learnt of friends; and gentleness,
In hearts at peace, under her Heaven.

In memoriam to one who has sailed away to calmer seas, we inscribe this edition of the BREEZES to Sherrie Helen Hollars, a friend and classmate whose fond memory will remain with us always.

Where's the party?

Frankly, I'm impressed.

Which twin has the Toni?

An apple a day keeps the doctor away.

Ready-Set-Go!!!

Watch the birdie!!

"Turn it on, wind it up, blow it out,
G T Tricycle!

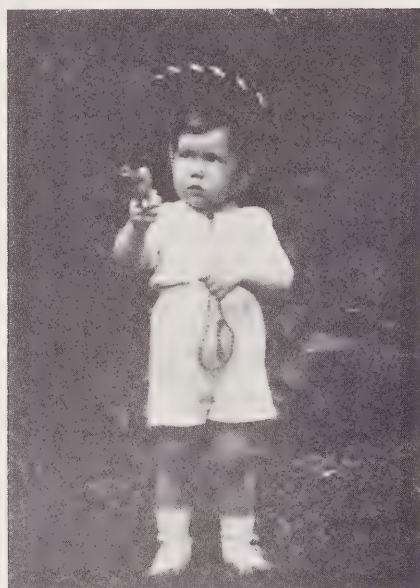

Gee, I wish I had . . .

Halloween, again??

Is it true blondes have more fun

If you don't give me the deed to your ranch, I'll . . .

Temper! Temper!

Please, Mommy . . .

No waves, no curls, just FRIZZ!
